1. General. The Officers Honorary Retired List was established by section I, WD General Orders 11, 1945, for the purpose of providing a measure of recognition for officers and former officers of the Army of the United States not members of the Regular Army who have served faithfully and well during national emergencies or for long periods.

2. Publication. a. The Officers Honorary Retired List is published annually by The Adjutant General as a section of the U.S. Army Register. It consists of an alphabetical listing of officers, showing name, grade, Army service number, component, and permanent address.

b. One copy of each current list will be furnished each officer listed.

3. Eligibility. Those in the following categories are eligible to apply for inclusion on the Officers Honorary Retired List provided they have received an Honorable Discharge Certificate (officers on the Regular Army or Army of the United States retired lists are not eligible):

a. An officer of the Inactive National Guard who has served honorably on active duty as an officer in time of national emergency or who has completed 15 years of honorable service in an active or inactive status (including warrant officer and enlisted service) in any component of the Armed Forces of the United States.

b. An officer of the Retired Reserve of the Army Reserve who has served honorably on active duty as an officer in time of national emergency or who has completed 15 years of honorable service in an active or inactive status (including warrant officer and enlisted service) in any component of the Armed Forces of the United States.

c. A former commissioned officer of the Army who upon separation from the military service received an Honorable Discharge Certificate and who meets one of the following conditions:

- (1) Has reached the age of 60 years.
- (2) Has completed 15 years of honorable service in an active or inactive status (including warrant officer and enlisted service) in any component of the Armed Forces of the United States.
- (3) Has served honorably in time of national emergency but is not eligible for appointment in the National Guard of the United States or the Army Reserve.

4. Placement upon list. a. Eligible officers will be placed on the Officers Honorary Retired List only upon their own application. Such application will be made to the Commanding Officer, U.S. Army Administration Center, ATTN: AGAC-SD, 9700 Page Boulevard, St. Louis, Mo., 63132, in letter form and will include the officer's full name, grade, Army service number, permanent address, and the facts upon which he bases his claim to eligibility. The official Department of the Army records of each applicant will be reviewed and approved or denied based on the individual merits of each case.

b. Once placed upon the Officers Honorary Retired List each officer is required to forward to the Commanding Officer, U.S. Army Administration Center, ATTN: AGAC-SD, not later than 1 July of each year his current permanent address.

5. Pay and allowances. No pay and allowances will accrue to an officer as a result of his being placed upon the Officers Honorary Retired List.

*This regulation supersedes AR 600-1, 4 August 1960.
