1. Purpose. This program permits a limited number of commissioned officers of the Regular Army and distinguished military graduates of ROTC to enter on excess leave (without pay and allowances) for approximately 3½ years, with detail to JAGC, for the purpose of obtaining a legal education with a view to appointment in the Judge Advocate General's Corps, Regular Army, upon attainment of a law degree and admission to the bar.

2. Eligibility requirements. a. Regular Army commissioned officers should—

- (1) Have graduated from an accredited college or university with a baccalaureate degree or equivalent.
- (2) Have not more than 7 years actual or constructive commissioned service as of the beginning of the academic year for which application is made. The maximum years of service may be exceeded by 1 or 2 years if the applicant has completed that many years of study at a law school approved by the American Bar Association.
- (3) Not be serving in a grade higher than captain.
- (4) Have completed at least 2 years of service in a combat arm if a graduate of the United States Military Academy.

b. Distinguished military students must meet the eligibility requirements set forth in AR 601-

107 and should have attained an academic standing in the upper half of their class.

3. Legal aptitude test. All applicants must take a law school admission test. The Law School Admission Test, prepared and administered by the Educational Testing Service, Box 944, Princeton, N.J., 08540, has been selected for this purpose. It is the responsibility of each officer and distinguished military student who desires to apply for this program to take this test. Officers and distinguished military students will request application blanks direct from the Educational Testing Service, and arrangements for taking the test will be made by applicant with the Testing Service. An information bulletin may be obtained from the Testing Service explaining the test and procedures in detail, including the locations and dates that the test may be taken. There is a fee of $12, which entitles one to receive a copy of his score report and to have reports sent to three institutions. Each applicant will indicate on line 7 of the application blank that one score report is to be forwarded to The Judge Advocate General, ATTN: Career Management Division, Department of the Army, Washington, D.C., 20310. This test will be taken at applicant's expense without cost to the Government.

4. Procedure. a. Regular Army commissioned officers desiring consideration under this program will initiate a request for excess leave, with detail to JAGC, in accordance with this regulation and

*This regulation supersedes AR 601-114, 24 September 1965.

RETURN TO ARMY LIBRARY
ROOM 1 A 518 PENTAGON

AR 614-100. Application will be submitted on DA Form 1049 (Personnel Action), through command channels, to the Chief of Personnel Operations, ATTN: (appropriate career branch), Department of the Army, Washington, D.C., 20315, with the following:

- (1) Transcript of the record of all education obtained at college level or higher. Such transcript, if possible, should show the class standing of the applicant.
- (2) Statement as to legal study completed and legal experience, in both civilian and military life.
- (3) If on foreign service, date of expected return to the United States.
- (4) Reasons for requesting detail.
- (5) Letter of conditional acceptance from the law school to be attended and the period of time required to complete the course.
- (6) Two recent photographs, head and shoulders type, 3 by 5 inches, with name and current service number on the reverse.
- (7) Law School Admission Test score if available or date that Law School Admission Test was taken.
- (8) A statement as follows:

In consideration of being allowed to complete my legal education, I agree that, upon its successful completion, I will make due and reasonable application for admission to practice before the highest court of a State or a District Court of the United States. I further agree, upon graduation from law school and admission to practice, to accept an appointment in the Judge Advocate General's Corps, Regular Army, if tendered, and thereafter to serve on active duty for a period of at least 3 years plus 6 months for each academic year of excess leave or major portion thereof. I understand that my excess leave status will be terminated if I am unable to enter law school or if I fail to maintain acceptable grades or abandon the study of law, and that in any event periods spent in excess leave status are not considered in the satisfaction of any service obligation I have by reason of my initial Regular Army appointment.

b. Distinguished military students will submit their application for appointment in the Regular Army (DA Form 61) in accordance with AR 601-107 and will submit the following information:

- (1) A request for excess leave under the provisions of this regulation.

- (2) Information as set forth in a (1), (2), (5), (6), and (7) above.
- (3) A service agreement as set forth in a(8) above. This statement will be submitted in lieu of that required by paragraph 15b, AR 601-107.

5. Appointment of distinguished military graduates in Regular Army. Distinguished military graduates accepted under this program will be appointed in one of the basic branches of the Regular Army, with detail to JAGC, upon attainment of a baccalaureate degree and designation as a distinguished military graduate and will be carried in an excess leave status except when performing on-the-job training as indicated in paragraph 6*a*. The excess leave program is separate from the JAGC-DMG program announced in AR 601-107 which remains in effect.

6. Assignments. a. Assignments during the period officer is attending law school and while awaiting appointment in the Judge Advocate General's Corps, Regular Army, will be as directed by Headquarters, Department of the Army. Officers will attend law school on a nonaccelerated basis, unless an exception is made by The Judge Advocate General on an individual basis, and will perform on-the-job training with JAGC activities when school is not in session. This training is mandatory during the summer vacation period and is authorized for periods as short as 7 days when school is not in session.

b. Officers will be assigned to the Student Detachment of a major command headquarters with station at an Army installation within that command which is as near as possible to the law school of attendance. All assignment orders will state specifically the purpose of the assignment.

7. Action by major commanders. a. All major commanders are responsible for the implementation of this program.

b. Upon receipt of notification from Headquarters, Department of the Army, that applicant has been tentatively selected for appointment in the Judge Advocate General's Corps, Regular Army, and has been granted excess leave to attend law school, the major commander having jurisdiction over the applicant will—

- (1) Tender Regular Army appointment to distinguished military graduates in basic branch.

(2) Issue assignment orders as directed by Headquarters, Department of the Army.

c. The files of applicants for whom jurisdiction is transferred will be referred expeditiously by the losing major commander to the gaining major commander. Letter of transmittal will contain a summary of processing actions completed and any instructions from Headquarters, Department of the Army, as to further processing of applicant.

d. A copy of each order will be furnished The Judge Advocate General, ATTN: Career Management Division.

8. Transcript report. After the first semester of each academic year, it is the responsibility of each officer to forward a report reflecting the grades received in each course direct to The Judge Advocate General, ATTN: Career Management Division. At the end of each academic year, each officer must obtain and forward to The Judge Advocate General, ATTN: Career Management Division, an official school report reflecting the grades received for the entire academic year. The report will be dispatched at the earliest possible date. Upon graduation, a consolidated transcript of all law school work, with notation on same of the law degree conferred, will also be forwarded without delay. Such transcript, if possible, should show the class standing of the student.

9. Appointment in The Judge Advocate General's Corps, Regular Army. Final appointment in The Judge Advocate General's Corps will be made after the officer graduates from law school and becomes a member of the bar. Until such appointment, an officer will remain assigned to the basic branch to which originally appointed but will remain detailed to JAGC until appointment in JAGC is effected or detail is terminated by
