Qualifications

For qualifications determinations, your resume must contain hours worked per week and the month and year of employment for each position listed on your resume (i.e., hours per week and month/year to month/year or month/year to present).

Basic Requirement:

Possession of the first professional law degree, i.e. Bachelor of Laws (LL.B.) or Juris Doctorate (J.D.), from a law school accredited by the American Bar Association. Transcripts are required at the time of application; AND

Professional legal experience in excess of three years that is commensurate with the duties and responsibilities of a Trial Attorney (General); AND

Be an active member of the bar of the highest court of any one of the 50 States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, Guam, the Virgin Islands, the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands, and any territory or possession of the United States.

Grade Level Requirement:

In addition to meeting the Basic Requirement above, to qualify for the position you must also meet the specialized experience requirements listed below:

You may qualify at the GS-15 level, if you fulfill the following qualification requirement:

One year of specialized experience equivalent to the GS-14 grade level in the Federal service (experience may have been gained in the private sector) that demonstrates specialized experience in: (1) military criminal and Military Commissions experience; (2) researching and analyzing a wide variety of legal and/or historical materials related to issues in Military Commissions; (3) conducting legal research and analysis in involving relevant matters contained in libraries, archives, and other records and repositories not routinely accessed by civilian courts, such as the U.S. National Archives; (4) conducting and researching various ad hoc international tribunals in the Hague, and other locations that archive smaller international laws or laws of war materials; (5) formulating guidelines for assigned projects.

Experience refers to paid and unpaid experience, including volunteer work done through National Service programs (e.g., Peace Corps, AmeriCorps) and other organizations (e.g., professional; philanthropic; religious; spiritual; community, student, social). Volunteer work helps build critical competencies, knowledge, and skills and can provide valuable training and experience that translates directly to paid employment. You will receive credit for all qualifying experience, including volunteer experience.

HOW TO DETERMINE CURRENT AND PAST “GRADE LEVEL”: Current Federal employees have a current grade level that is easily determined. For private sector experiences, salary levels may provide an initial indication. You can find pay – by grade – for DC-area employees at: <https://www.opm.gov/policy-data-oversight/pay-leave/salaries-wages/salary-tables/pdf/2022/DCB.pdf> .

Factor descriptions at <https://www.opm.gov/policy-data-oversight/classification-qualifications/classifying-general-schedule-positions/standards/0100/gso132pa.pdf> provide descriptions of duties associated with various grade levels. Look at factors one through three, per the table below, to help judge associated grade levels of your past/current experiences.

FACTOR LEVELS	GS-05	GS-07	GS-09	GS-11	GS-12	GS-13	GS-14	GS-15
Knowledge	1-5	1-6	1-6	1-7	1-7	1-8	1-8	1-9
Supervisory Controls	2-1	2-2	2-3	2-4	2-4	2-4	2-5	2-5
Guidelines	3-1	3-2	3-3	3-3	3-4	3-4	3-5	3-5

Overall, it makes understanding your resume easier if you include past/current salary information for each experience and/or an indication of your estimate of GS level given duties alongside the hours and month/year information required for each experience in your resume. Further, while not required or a guarantee of success, including language from requisite Factor sections can help certification of your resume.

Education

ARE YOU USING YOUR EDUCATION TO QUALIFY? You MUST provide transcripts to support your educational claims. Education must be accredited by an accrediting institution recognized by the U.S. Department of Education. Unless otherwise stated: (1) official or unofficial transcripts are acceptable, or (2) you may submit a list with all of your courses, grades, semester, year, and credit for the course. All materials must be submitted by the closing date of the announcement.

ARE YOU QUALIFYING BASED ON EDUCATION or A COMBINATION OF EDUCATION AND EXPERIENCE?

You must provide sufficient documentation of your education in your resume. You are strongly encouraged to provide a copy of transcripts or degrees in your application package. It is also acceptable to document your applicable course listing in your resume (course number, credits earned, etc.). Education must be accredited by an accrediting institution recognized by the U.S. Department of Education in order for it to be credited towards qualifications. Therefore, provide only the attendance and/or degrees from schools accredited by accrediting institutions recognized by the U.S. Department of Education. Applicants can verify accreditation at the following website: <http://www.ed.gov/admins/finaid/accred/index.html>. All education claimed by applicants will be verified by the appointing agency. If selected, an official/sealed transcript will be required prior to appointment.

PASS/FAIL COURSES: If more than 10 percent of your undergraduate course work (credit hours) were taken on a pass/fail basis, your claim of superior academic achievement must be based upon class standing or membership in an honor society.

GRADUATE EDUCATION: One academic year of graduate education is considered to be the number of credits hours your graduate school has determined to represent one academic year of full-time study. Such study may have been performed on a full-time or part-time basis. If you cannot obtain your graduate school's definition of one year of graduate study, 18 semester hours (or 27 quarter hours) should be considered as satisfying the requirement for one year of full-time graduate study

FOREIGN EDUCATION: If you are using education completed in foreign colleges or universities to meet the qualification requirements, you must show the education credentials have been evaluated by a private organization that specializes in interpretation of foreign education programs and such education has been deemed equivalent to that gained in an accredited U.S. education program; or full credit has been given for the courses at a U.S. accredited college or university. For further information, visit:

<https://www2.ed.gov/about/offices/list/ous/international/usnei/us/edlite-visitus-forrecog.html>

All qualifications, education, and time-in-grade requirements must be met by the closing date of this announcement and clearly documented in your resume.

How You Will Be Evaluated

Ongoing reviews of submitted résumés and supporting documentation will be used to determine whether applicants meet the qualification requirements listed on this announcement. If, after reviewing your résumé and/or supporting documentation, a determination is made that you have inflated your qualifications and/or experience, you may lose consideration for this position. Please follow all instructions carefully when applying, errors or omissions may affect your eligibility.

All qualified candidates will be documented and categorized for review by hiring managers. The category assignment is a measure of the degree in which your background matches the competencies required for this position.

REQUIRED DOCUMENTS

YOU ARE REQUIRED TO DOCUMENT IN YOUR APPLICATION PACKAGE EVIDENCE THAT SUPPORTS YOUR ELIGIBILITY AND QUALIFICATION CLAIMS. You MUST upload the applicable documents with your application package. If you fail to provide these documents, you will be marked as having an incomplete application package and you will not be considered any further.

1. Your resume may be submitted in any format that includes your name and contact information (telephone number and/or email).

If you submit more than one copy of your resume, only the most recent version will be reviewed. The latest timestamp will be used to determine which version of your resume is "most recent."

If your resume includes a photograph or other inappropriate material or content, it will not be used to make eligibility and qualification determinations and you will not be considered for this vacancy.

2. Other supporting documents:

- Cover Letter: Indicate 1) the grade level (e.g. GS-13) for which you believe you are qualified; 2) the minimum grade level you are willing to accept; and 3) limit further content in the required "cover letter" to a one-sentence description of why you are a good fit for this occupation.
- Most recent SF-50, "Notification of Personnel Action" showing you are/were in the Federal government competitive service and the highest grade held, if applicable.
- College Transcript(s), if qualifying based on education.
- DD-214, SF-15 Form and VA letter, or certification of expected discharge or release from active duty from Veterans for consideration under Veteran hiring authorities, if applicable.

- Noncompetitive appointment authority documentation, if applicable (e.g. military spouse, veteran of Peace Corps, have a disability qualifying for “Schedule A,” etc.)

How To Apply

To apply for this position, you must complete and submit the documentation specified in the Required Documents section, above, ALL COMBINED INTO A SINGLE PDF DOCUMENT (single PDF document is necessary to facilitate sharing of application with more hiring managers).

A complete application package must be submitted by 11:59 PM (EST) on the closing date of the announcement (September 30, 2022) to receive consideration.

It is your responsibility to verify that all information in your resume and documents are legible and accurate.

Next Steps

Once your online application is submitted you will receive a confirmation notification by email. If, and only if, you have not received an email confirming receipt of your application after one week of submission, contact james.w.dillon6.civ@mail.mil. Your application will be evaluated by the Human Resources Office to determine your eligibility for the position. After the evaluation is complete, you will receive general or targeted notifications regarding the status of your application. Multiple position openings will be filled by this announcement, so you may receive many status updates as the process progresses.
